Re: Domains Registered in Your Name

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I am uncertain if you are aware of my ongoing disputes with Ms. Crystal Cox. I have brought a UDRP action against her and against you, for what I believe is the unlawful registration and use of the following domain names: marcrandazza.com, marcjrandazza.com, marcjohnrandazza.com, marcrandazza.biz, marcrandazza.info, marcrandazza.mobi.

I would like to advise you that I am also bringing a federal lawsuit against her. At this time, based on what I know so far, I won't necessarily need to name you as a defendant as well. However, it occurs to me, while I am drafting the complaint, that you may not even be aware of your possible involvement in this case and you may simply be another innocent victim.

Presuming the better of you, I would like to invite you to call me at the number on this letterhead. If, as I suspect, you are not an actual active participant in Ms. Cox's antics, I think that there is a way that we can very easily resolve your involvement in the lawsuit. By this, I mean that there will be no penalty imposed upon you, no lawsuit brought against you, and really no inconvenience to you. On the other hand, if I am mistaken and you are actually an active participant in Ms. Cox's shenanigans, we may need to have a very different conversation.

Please contact me by close of business on Friday, October 19, 2012 and we can (I hope) very quickly and easily get you out of this situation and I can simply focus on Ms. Cox.

Best regards,

Marc. J. Randazza

Sir, the suit will be filed before 6:00 pm. However, I will still call you at 6:00 and I will amend the complaint to delete you from it, if our conversation is fruitful. I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience.

Please include me

You prefer to be a defendant?

So you're not an innocent victim of Crystal Cox?
